

NAPA COUNTY SPECIAL EDUCATION PARENT COMMITTEE

The Community Advisory Committee (CAC) is the parent advisory committee for Napa County special education. The purpose of the CAC is to provide a forum for open communication and feedback between parents, school districts, and local agencies. All parents of students in Napa County schools who have an IEP, IFSP, 504 plan and/or a disability are welcome to get involved.

2025-2026 CAC Meetings: Supporting Your Child Through Transitions

- September 15, 2025, 5:30- 6:30: Allysa DiFilippo from California Connections: An Overview of the Transition to Adulthood
- October 20, 2025, 5:30- 6:30: Alexis Lynch, Lawyer, “Conservatorship and Supported Decision Making: Choosing the Right Path for Your Child.”
- November 17, 2025, 5:30- 6:30: Exploring High School/Post High School Educational and Job Opportunities: Disability Services at NVC, Department of Rehabilitation, and NVUSD Supported Vocational Services
- February 2, 2026, 5:30- 6:30: Understanding Supplemental Security Income (SSI) In Home Supportive Services (IHSS) with presenters from Disability Rights CA.
- March 23, 2026, 5:30-6:30: Understanding NBRC’s Self-Determination Program and California’s Disability Savings Plan, CalABLE
- April 20, 2026, 5:30- 6:30: The Early Years: Understanding Infant- Preschool- TK/Kindergarten Transitions with presenters from North Bay Regional Center, Napa Infant Program and NCOE/NVUSD preschool special education providers.
- May 18, 2026, 5:30-6:30: The Middle Years: Understanding Transitions from Elementary to Middle School and Middle School to High School.

Meetings Are Held Virtually & Spanish Translation Provided

